level, 3.76. Intellectual aspect was at high level at 3.58. Influences of Itthipata 4 in 4 aspects; Chanta, aspiration, was at high level, 3.60, Viriya, effort, was at high level at 3.64, Chitta, attention, was at high level at 3.77 and Vimamsa, examiniation, was at high level at 3.64. The holistic well-being administration; man management was at high level at 3.67, budget management was at high level at 3.73, general management was at high level at 3.83, material, equipment management was at high level 3.76, people service was at high level at 3.65 and ethics and morality was at high level at 3.79.

Findings from data analysis with Multiple regression at significant level at 0.01 in six areas were that factors for man management was at .104, budget management at .085, general management was at .139, material/equipmenmt management was at .077, people service was at high level at .079 and ethics and morality was at .087. All factors influencing people's holistic well-being administration of local administrative organization were at 69.4 per cent, (R=.774 R2 = .59.9) Influencing factors of Itthipata 4 in 4 aspects; Chanta, aspiration, was at .106, Viriya, effort, .025, Chitta, attention, was at .853 and Vimamsa, examiniation, was at high level .125. This indicated that Ittipatha 4 had influence upon the people's holistic well-being administration of local administrative organization at upper central region. Itthipadha4 with all 4 aspects had influences upon behavioral change, especially mental change affecting holistic well-beings for people at the explainable score at 59.9 per cent or (R=.774 R2 =.59.9)

Guidelines for people's holistic well-being administration, physical aspect; Chanta, aspiration, organizations must have policy to promote sense of health care for personnel to take care of people's well-being, allocating sufficient budget for the projects and activities to support the health care projects as needed. Allocating modern equipment for people health service continuously, Morale encouraging for personnel to render health service for people, in return, this aspiration induced Viriya, effort.

Guidelines for people's holistic well-being administration, mental aspect; refereeing to plans, projects about well-being performed by personnel in the public health section. Encouraging them to lead sick people to meet psychiatrist, Dhamma practice promotion, religious activities, five precept