1. The administrative conditions of meditation practice centers in Ayuthaya Province in 3 areas; the place, resource persons and administration were by overall at high level($\bar{X}$=4.12) and each area was also at high level. The resource person was at highest level($\bar{X}$=4.26). fully understanding of Buddhism was ar highest level($\bar{X}$=4.42), the place was at high level($\bar{X}$=4.06) Separation of dwelling places for men and women was at highest level($\bar{X}$=4.53), administration by overall was at high level($\bar{X}$=4.03), abbots or meditation practice center operators were interested in and saw importance of education, practice and Buddhism dissemination by insight meditation was at highest level($\bar{X}$=4.60) accounts payable and receivable. There was the good safety protection system.

2. Buddhadhamma and theory for Administration of meditation practice centers were Sappayadhamma 7 for the place administration; 1) Avasa, dwelling, senasana sappaya, 2) Kojarakama, communication, 3) Passa, dialoques, 4) Pukkala, persons, 5) Pochana, food, 6) Ruedu, seasons, 7) Iriyapada, movement. These things are the basic foundation of meditation practice to develop the meditation teachers, using POSDC model: P for planning, good administrators have good long term vision to confirm the direction of organization. O is for organizing, systemize the structure of organization with chain of command, S was for Staffing: recruitment for the new personnel to replace the old ones and use personnel who fit for the work, D. is for directing, was to direct and facilitate personnel to follow the leaders. Administrators must have good interpersonal communication and leadership, C is for controlling, quality control of organizations, internal problems solving including administration process for the most of efficiency and effectiveness.

3. Administrative strategy of meditation practice centers in Ayuthaya Province was that; 1) strengthen the knowledge of insight meditation, teaching media production for meditation teachers, Dhamma media production such as books, Dhamma CD.DVD and other media for meditation teaching including online media for those who might be interested in meditation practice. Dhamma lecture before practice and media development project for foreigners, 2) produce