Maslow. The growth of self-actualization refers to the need for personal growth and discovery that is present throughout a person's life, 1962.

Merrian and caffarella,(1999) driven by the psychological paradigm, was the predominate way we thought about learning in adulthood (Merriam&Caffarella,1999).

Roger. spresented his theory of learning in Freedom to Learn which he wrote while a resident fellow at the Center for Studies of the Person in La Jolla, 1969.

Routledge, London Griffin, C. Curriculum Theory in Adult and Lifelong Education, Croom Helm, 1983.

Skager,K.D. Life long Education and Evaluation Practice, New York : UNESCO Institute for Education, Harm Bury and Bergama Press, 1972.