

Abstract

How is Wealth Transfer related to Child Mortality?

Umaporn Pattaravanich

The objective of this paper is to apply Caldwell's wealth flows theory to child mortality and health comparing Thailand with the Philippines. Data show that the relationship between women's status, particularly women's economic participation and infant and child mortality through the wealth-flow attitude of parents.